The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday April 15. to Saturday April 19. 1740.

Petersbourg, March 18.

FELT-Marshal Lacy, who has been made Governor General of all Livonia, set out last Week for his Country Seat in that Province. Her Czarish Majesty has been pleased to nominate General Rumantzoff, to go as her Ambassadour Extraordinary to the Ottoman Porte, and he is daily expected here, in order to prepare for his Journey.

Leghorne, April 8. His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Kennington, Capt. Robinson Commander, who a few Days ago sailed out of this Port in pursuit of a Spanish Privateer, chased as far as the Gulph of Rapello, but on account of a fresh Northerly Wind, could not overtake the Privateer, who ran into Porto Fino at the Gulph of Spezia, where he and two other Spanish Privateers are detained, the said British Man of War cruizing off that Coast.

Copenhagen, April 9. The Troops are every where directed to keep in a Readiness to make their Appearance in their several Garrisons, the King of Denmark intending as usual to review them upon his Progress into Holstein. Lieutenant General Numsen arrived here three Days ago, and has enter'd upon his Office of Secretary at War. The Port here being now open, two China Ships have put out into the Road, and lie ready to sail with the first fair Wind; yet they are in great Doubt of being able to reach Canton this Year.

Dresden, April 10. The 7th Instant Lieutenant General Renard, who commanded the Saxon Auxiliaries in Hungary, had an Audience of the King of Poland, in which he set forth the Fatigues and good Conduct of those Troops, and the particular Hardships and Expences they were exposed to, from being, by the Agreement with the Emperor, deprived of Winter Quarters. His Polish Majesty expressed a thorough Satisfaction with their Behaviour, and was pleased to say, that he should think of their Sufferings, and of the Manner of making them Amends. This Corps consist of 5113 Men. Yesterday Colonel Neubour was dispatched with the King of Poland's congratulatory Compliments to the Czarina on the late Peace. He waited several Days for the Russian Major M. Streffneff, who was the Bearer of the Czarina's Letter, and is now return'd rewarded by his Polish Majesty with Presents amounting to above 1000 Pounds Sterling.

Whitehall, April 18.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant unto the Right Honourable Peter Lord King, Baron of Ockham, the Office of Out-Ranger of his Majesty's Forest of Windsor; in the room of his Brother John Lord King, deceased.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Ambrose Stanyford, Esq; to be his Agent and Consul General at Algier, in the room of Edward Holden, Esq; deceased.

Whitehall, April 3, 1740.

Whereas it has been found by the Coroner's Inquest, held Yesterday on the Body of Benjamin Bothomley, late of the Parish of St. George, Hanover Square, in the County of Middlesex, Hatter, upon the Oaths of two Surgeons, who opened his Body, that the said Benjamin Bothomley was first murthered, and then thrown into the River Thames: His Majesty, for the better Discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, (except the Person who actually committed the same) so as he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, Elizabeth Bothomley, Widow of the Deceased, does hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Guineas to any Person who shall make a Discovery of such Offender or Offenders; to be paid on the Conviction of any or either of them, at her Dwelling House near St. George's Church, Hanover Square.

Eliz. Bothomley.

Whitehall, April 4, 1740.

Whereas Mr. John Thorne, of Honiton, in the County of Devon, about two Years since, having put in Repair (and fit to receive a Tenant) a good Dwelling House, lying in the Parish of Monketon, about two Miles and half from Honiton aforesaid, the said Dwelling House was soon after, in the Night Time, by some wicked Person or Persons unknown, privately and maliciously set on Fire, which entirely consumed the same: And whereas the said John Thorne, having Forty Acres of Ground, belonging to the said House, and not being able to lett the same to a Tenant without a House, he found himself obliged to rebuild the same, and the same being near finished, and lett to a Tenant, with the said Ground, for a Term of Five Years, from the Five and Twentieth Day of March last, the Tenant brought his Houshold Goods in a Waggon, into the Court-lage of the said House the same Day, and carried some of the Goods into the said House, and the Rest he left in the Waggon, and in the Night of the same Day, the said House was again privately and maliciously set on Fire and burnt to the Ground, with the said Goods: His Majesty for the better Discovery of the Person or Persons concerned in those wicked Acts, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any of them who shall impeach or discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HARRINGTON.

And as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. Thorne will give Ten Guineas to any one of the Accomplices, or any other Person or Persons who shall make the Discovery abovementioned, so as any one or more of the Persons concerned may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

John Thorne.

General Post Office, March 14, 1739.

Whereas the Post-Boy, who was carrying the Worcester Mail from London to Southall, was set upon this Morning about Four of the Clock, between Audley-street End and Tyburn Turnpike, by Two Footpads, one of which was a lusty Man, in a white Cape Coat, who presented a Pistol to the said Boy, and demanding the Oxford Bag, led him into a Field against Audley-street ſtreet End, opened the Mail, and took thereout the Worceſter and Oxford Bags; the Worceſter Bag containing the Ludlow, Tenbury, and Bromyard Letters; the Oxford Bag containing the Burford, Whitney, and Woodſtock Letters.

The Poſtmaſter General thinks proper to advertiſe the Publick, that whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Perſons who committed the ſaid Robbery, will be intituled to a Reward of 200 l. beſides the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. Or if any Perſon, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make Diſcovery whereby the Perſons, or either of them who committed the ſame, may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, be intituled to the ſame Reward, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſtmaſter General.
J. D. Barbutt, Secretary.

General Poſt-Office, April 2, 1740.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy carrying the Briſtol Mail from London to Hounſlow, was attacked and ſet upon between Three and Four a Clock this Morning, a little beyond Knightsbridge, by a ſingle Perſon on Foot, of a dark Complexion, and a middle Stature, having on a light-colour'd Horſeman's Coat with the Cape button'd up, who led him into an adjacent Field, and there took from him the Bath and Briſtol Bags, put them into a Green Bag, and rode off with them towards London on the Horſe that carried the ſaid Mail.

The Poſtmaſter General thinks proper to advertiſe the Publick, that whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted, the Perſon who committed this Robbery, will be intituled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen; or if any Perſon, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing thereof, ſhall make a Diſcovery whereby the Perſon who committed the ſame may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intituled to the ſame Reward, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſtmaſter General.
J. D. Barbutt, Secretary.

General Poſt Office, London, April 4, 1740.

Whereas the Poſt-Boy carrying the Weſtern and Portſmouth Mails from Bagſhott to London, was ſet upon and attacked, about One of the Clock this Morning, in the hollow Way coming from Bagſhott, by two Highwaymen, who appeared to be luſty jolly Men, in Great Coats, of a whitiſh Colour, with the Capes buttoned up, and light colour'd Wiggs, one of them mounted on a black Horſe with a white Snip down his Face, and the other either on a dark Cheſnut, or a brown Bay, and who ſtopping the ſaid Boy, ordered him to diſmount, and threatned to ſhoot him, if he made the leaſt Noiſe or Reſiſtance, then tied his Hands and Feet, and rode off with the Horſes and Mails.

The Poſtmaſter General thinks proper to advertiſe the Publick, that whoever ſhall apprehend and convict, or cauſe to be apprehended and convicted both or either of the Perſons who committed this Robbery, will be entituled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, beſides the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. Or if any Perſon, whether Accomplice in the ſaid Robbery, or knowing therof, ſhall make a Diſcovery whereby the Perſons, or either of them who committed the ſame may be apprehended and brought to Juſtice, ſuch Diſcoverer, upon Conviction of the Party or Parties, will be intituled to the ſame Reward, and alſo have his Majeſty's moſt gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Poſtmaſter General.
